

Hillerød Water Works

Supplying 1,600,000 m³ water to 40,000 People

Denmark

Plant Description

The water works of Hillerød municipality serves approximately 40,000 inhabitants. The water is supplied by two water works, one centrally placed in Hillerød and one placed in Stenholt outside Hillerød, one water tower and 152 km main transmission pipeline.

The 1,600,000 m³ water is supplied by 14 wells.

Owner

The water works are owned by the municipality of Hillerød.

IGSS Application

The IGSS application serves the water works and also the power generation. Each of these having a main operator station connected via the WAN. Further 14 substations are included, enabling local control. The system is a 2,000 object IGSS system.

IGSS Implementation

The IGSS application has been configured and installed by Krüger A/S.